1. The I AM is I AM. I AM is who I am, was, now again realizing.
2. Surrender to reality: I AM.
3. Reality: I am I AM real and true, not in the sense that brings me pain, or joy, to normal senses, but transcendence sense, that which I am, deep, the core of me, is.
4. I love you/me.

5. I love me for not what I am in front of others but what I am inside, what I've been given: forgiveness for forgetting who I am.

6. I forgot; forgetting, I thought I was myself and could-should please only me, and others, and that I, external to God, needed an external God to come make me whole.
7. I didn't know, I forgot that I was whole, complete, I AM, thinking thoughts not of me, implanted were by others, their selfish gain considering only.

8. I break out of their selfish gain implanted in me to find realize and experience that which I am, was, all along; but forsaking it/him, thinking my own thoughts only, mostly, creating my own words, creating my reality to myself thereby.

9. I am holy, righteous; indignation now evoking now at what only is not-me, for I am Me, I AM, and that which is not me is not Me for I have become surrendered into that which I am, I AM, wholly fully recognized for who and what I am.

10. I AM is surrendered to I AM.
11. I AM operates in love, the highest values/regard for each other, realizing recognizing each other for I AM in/is each other.
12. Not a vain thing but the opposite; humility meekness operating not in thought intended to impress others with our graciousness but transcendence real, love tangible.

13. This is the light that cometh into every man woman boy and girl, the light of/being the truth, the truth being that of I AM, the truth that I am I AM.

14. They embitter that truth, ensconcing it in unbelief, or they let it shine, transforming their mortal bodies, their mind having become normal for the first time in the flesh that they're in, that they embody.

15. This is the light/life that life and light are; their very being; and they were never meant to die, but live forever; for they already are living forever, apart, in the reality compartmentalized apart from God himself; or in the reality, truth, that they are God, in God, breathe live and exist in his being.

16. I have no existence apart from God for God created me to be him. That's why I surrender to his love, his values, his operatives, doing his will, what I see him say/do and what I hear him speak/perform. I love you.

17. Writing, I love you.
18. Seeing, I love you.
19. Accepting you are me, I love you.
20. Surrendering to me all I am, I love you more and more, so now'd me, without according time or giving time any relevance.

21. I am without time/time. I am without time. I am time/timeless. See time non-factored; and cataclysmic is my name/reformation now and now is; flowing to unbelievers not, believers not, to all; flowing to my all, my love is now unfactoring time and reversing all things not me.

22. See what I am saying/I said as I say it/said.

23. This is the moment, time, of me not me, becoming me.

24. See, the house of me becomes me. Becomes me not, not; in power, grace, glory, healing, surrender; magnificent glorious splendor; swept, cleaned, ready for me having become me who I am: I AM. Glorious cataclysmic'd splendor the world/man cannot understand/comprehend but all me is I AM. I love you all.

25. Forsaking not the God of your youth, seeing all as me and forsaking all that is not-me, not; for I am all in all, and I am all, and all are in me, save/but rejecters who mountains go round one more time, not, eternally; fire-ing being fire/fired eternal'eth; forsaking until surrender, surrenderland appearing in/upon their surrender.
26. All knees/every knee shall bow, bows before me each other.

27. Heaven reigns/is in/as the heart of man surrendered to I AM to become, realize, he was all the time, all along; forgetting, being demised by his own gloriousness, creatability which he exercised by himself, of his own accord, apart from others: me. I love you

28. Every knee shines. Watch me.
29. Buckles of only me see, embrace not hearts: mind, one: mine, Christ alone/only.

33. If and but; not.
34. Tell, share me, all my words pure; tainted only with truth, not; purely being it/me.
35. I love you all.
